Dear Prospective Congregant:

I am delighted that you are considering joining Congregation Sons of Israel. We are a Traditional synagogue with family seating. We are extremely excited and proud to be celebrating our 90th birthday this year and we consider ourselves very fortunate to have Rabbi Robert S. Pilavin as our spiritual leader. Rabbi Pilavin has been our spiritual leader since 2003 and most recently has agreed to continue as our spiritual leader for an additional 5 years.

Congregation Sons of Israel is well known for its warm, welcoming and inclusive services as a rotation of lay leaders assist in conducting our services. We are pleased to provide two daily minyans, seven days a week. We are proud to be the home of a highly successful Nursery School and fortunate to have the dynamic and talented Renée Narson as its director. Congregation Sons of Israel's Hebrew School program is directed by the passionate and charismatic Rabbi Stu Warner ("Rabbi Stu") and includes our newly created Torah Tots class for children from Kindergarten through 2nd Grade. Rabbi Stu is also our beloved Bar/Bat Mitzvah tutor. He will truly make this milestone memorable for you and your child.

Congregation Sons of Israel is a very vibrant synagogue and is proud of the many Shabbat and Holiday dinners that are held at our synagogue adding to its warmth and inviting atmosphere. In addition, we have a very active Men's Club and Sisterhood. The Men's Club sponsors a monthly Sunday morning breakfast program which includes dynamic speakers. The Sisterhood also offers a variety of interesting programs, including Book Chats.

Find out more about Congregation Sons of Israel by visiting our website at <http://www.sonsofisrael.com> where you can see past issues of our monthly publication, the Voice, as well other useful information.

I hope that the enclosed materials will be helpful in your decision to join Congregation Sons of Israel. If you have any further questions, please feel free to call the synagogue office at 732-446-3000 or e-mail me at GeminiGC52@aol.com. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Gail Cohen
